The Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. L. B. Coan, read

About sixty Chinese boys from the Mills' School sang in English "Tell it out," this song by a happy coincidence being the same as presented by the Portuguese Mission.

REPORT OF RECORDING SECRETARY.

During the year the Society has by invitation met with: Kawaiahao Seminary, Mr. C. H. Atherton, Dr. C. M. Hyde, Mr. J. B. Atherton, Mr. W. W. Hall, Rev. O. H. Gulick, Judge De La Vergne, Mrs. M. S. Rice, Y. M. C. A. and Mr. F. W. Damon.

The August, September and December meetings were omitted, the September one on account of the cholera, and the other two being the vacation seasons.

The attendance has aggregated 500 making an average of 50 for each of the ten meetings.

The editors of the Maile Wreath have been as follows: Mr. C. J. Lyons, Rev. O. H. Gulick, Miss Laura Pires and Mrs. J. H. Higgins (Mrs. E. H. McCully); Mr. T. Richards, Miss Nettie Hammond, Miss M. A. Brewer and Mr. W. E. Beckwith; Mrs. W. W. Hall, Miss Ida Pope, Mr. George De La Vergne and Mr. L. A. Dickey.

The first and last corps of editors presented papers upon various objects of interest, while the second corps of editors took up the subject of "The Education of Hawaiian Youth."

Twenty-three were made Life Members during the year and one was received as an Annual Member.

Among the visitors who have met with the Society during the year was the late Miss Kate Field.

The subject of the evening she was present was "The Education of Hawaiian Girls."

As a result of an evening's discussion upon "The Future of the Society" new work has been taken up in addition to that now carried on, and thus may the Society, in its 45th year, enter upon a new lease of life for "One generation passeth away, and another cometh."

W. L. Howard,
Recording Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CORRES-PONDING SECRETARY.

While the Morning Star, ready for her 13th annual voyage, last June, lay awaiting command to loose her moorings, those interested in her departure gathered on the adjacent wharf, whose shelter and firm foundation added to their comfort while farewell exercises were in progress. These were enriched by stirring words from Rev. Dr. Joseph Cook of Boston.

Those to embark were Rev. Louis Mitchel, a graduate of the North Pacific Institute, with his wife, a daughter of the late Hawaiian Missionary Mahoe, Dr. Pease, leaving his family for a time at Pomona, to aid Dr. Rife while touring through the Marshall group, Miss Abell, benefitted by her brief sojourn among us, returning to her school on Ruk, and the wife and babes of the ever faithful Captain Garland.

There were also two odd passengers, whose protests at embarking were most amusing; these were the little burrows for which the missionaries on Ruk had made request.

Just before the departure of the "Star," the "Hiram Bingham" had sailed for the Gilbert Islands. Her machinery had become rusty and impaired. Mr. Walkup, therefore, took the boat to San Francisco, and on the return trip stopped at Honolulu. The "Morning Star" returned on the 16th of March.

The news, in general, which she brought has not been of a nature to cheer and encourage very greatly. The evil influences of the heathen dancing, so freely indulged in by Gilbert Islanders, have been shown in diminished attendance at the schools, and by their indifference for books. Constrained by need of rest, Miss Hoppin had left Kusaie, proceeding directly to the States through chance opportunity of trading vessel. Miss Crosby, too, has again been obliged to leave on account of health.

From Mrs. Price's journal we learn of her tours with her husband among the "dirty, painted and almost naked savages" of Ruk. Unable as yet to use the language freely, she had found help in one of the girls, trained in Mrs. Logan's school. Mrs. Price's account of their joy on the arrival of the Morning Star might well lead every one to double his contribution to help sustain that precious craft. What joy must have been theirs when the new "Robert Logan," under command of Captain Bray, sailed into the Ruk lagoon, two hours after the "Star" had passed out through another entrance. On board the tiny boat were Mr. and Mrs. Foster, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Price, with their darling little girl. Mrs. Bray and Carrie were also passengers.

Among kind providences connected with the Star was her arrival at Ruk, with Dr. Pease, two days before the birth of a son to Mrs. Price. Mr. Price at the time lay ill with fever.

A letter from Miss Kinney, written at his request, brings their thanks for the renewal of our appropriation for the Mortlock Mission.

Miss Abell writes of her warm interest in our Society. While there is little change for the better at Anapauo, she believes "the time is coming when the light of God's love will brighten the hearts and homes of the Ruk people."

The brightest spots in the Micronesian reports this year, are perhaps, those connected with the tours of Dr. and Mrs. Rife, Dr. Pease and Miss Crosby, through the Marshall group.

Our missionary ship now lies at anchor, awaiting the coming of Mrs. Logan who hopes once more to resume work in Ruk. By the Star a new book, "Bible Readings," prepared by Mrs. Bingham, will be sent to the Gilbert people. During the year Dr. Bingham has given great labor to the preparation of a Gilbertese Hymn and Tune Book. This will require money for its publication. The W. B. M. P. I. have pledged fifty dollars towards it, and the Lima Kokua Society have cheerfully contributed their mite to help. Will not the cousins whose purpose is "to promote the cause of Gospel Missions" find a pleasure in helping, also, to raise the needed amount?

IN OTHER MISSION FIELDS

Our cousins have had varied and trying experiences. From Mrs. Bowman papers have been received containing letters of Dr. Shepard at Aintab. It is difficult to conceive of the horrors in the midst of which he and Mrs. Shepard have spent months of heroic endurance and effort for their afflicted people, not counting their lives dear unto themselves.

In spite of marauding Kurds, Miss Van Duzee was out "among the Villages on Salmas Plain" visiting former pupils of whom she says: "It is hard for these girls to live Christian lives with every thing to pull them down—no preaching, no Sunday School, no any thing to help."

Under date of March 12th, Rev. Wm. Gulick alluding to the sight of so many nations of the world engaged in awful strife, and above all, the sight of the Christian Powers looking unconcernedly on while the Turk butchered tens of thousands of Armenians, adds, "It seems to me that since the day of its foundation, Christianity has never before been so discredited in the eyes of the world. Well may the peoples ask: 'Has Christianity lost its savor?' And, now, of all things, we here in Spain are suddenly enveloped in a war cloud. The indignation and even hate that is expressed in the Spanish papers of all classes for the whole race of "Yankees" is something unbelievable did we not read the abusive words with our own eyes. My Alice is still in England, since November, undergoing treatment for her health, and working for this mission, holding meetings and talking much."

Several of the cousins from Japan have looked in upon us, in transitu to the States. In Mrs. Cyrus Clark we found the same dear, cheery Hattie Gulick that left these islands more than a score of years ago. In Rev. Sidney L. we realized the truth of the words, "Instead of the fathers shall be the children;" and in his wife we were glad to find another of the choice women whom the Gulicks have been so wise and so blest as to secure for companions. We looked with interest upon the bright children of these families as descendants of the lamented Luther Halsey and Louise Gulick. May their mantels fall upon them. With Mrs. S. L. Gulick was her aunt, Miss Eliza Talcott, whom we have adopted into our band. Miss Talcott's record of twenty years faithful service in Japan as a missionary teacher, and latterly as another Florence Nightingale in the crowded hospitals of Hiroshima, give her marked distinction.

With Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, of the Pang Chuang Mission, we deeply sympathize in the loss of their lovely and only daughter, Marie. The saintliness of her mortal life gives blessed assurance that she walks with saints in glory now.

ITEMS HERE AND THERE.

Very early in the morning of July 4th, 1895, there was a lively ringing of Honolulu's famous telephone bells. There was soon a gathering of an expectant crowd on the Oceanic dock. The electric lights of the Bennington reflected in the quiet waters of the harbor; the full moon in the western sky, the hazy outlines of the Waianae mountains, the lunar rainbow spanning Tantalus and Konahuanui were features of a scene of rare beauty. But eager eyes were fastened on the approaching Monowai, and ears were alert for familiar voices as the college yells of Princeton, Yale and Wesleyan assured us the college boys had come. What speeding of feet down the gang-plank was there, and what hurryings off to homes waiting to enfold them. How these homes were brightened by their presence while they tarried. In great contrast to the glad cheer they brought was the gloom that hovered over us for weeks thereafter, while the awful scourge of cholera strove about our streets. Can we ever be thankful enough to the Great Deliverer that He blessed the valiant efforts of our Board of Health in stamping out that scourge.

To the boys who have passed another year of good work at college we extend congratulations, and our sympathies to those who have had great disappointments.

Clarence Cooke though failure of health, has left

Yale and is with his father's household, who are spending the year in Oakland.

Frank Atherton has been very ill, but we rejoice in late news that he may yet be able to return with his mother, who for many weeks has watched beside him, while he seemed almost slipping away from earth.

Harry Waterhouse has dropped his studies because of serious trouble with his eyes. John Waterhouse just on the eve of graduation, comes back to his bereaved mother on receipt of the sad news of his father's death.

Will Whitney spent the long vacation with a charming party of cyclists, wheeling over the British Isles and on the Continent. Soon after his return to the States he had a most providential deliverance from sudden death. A delay of a moment or two, merely, caused him to lose the street car which, passing him, sped on to its fearful plunge through an open drawbridge, bearing nineteen souls into eternity. This was at Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Charlotte Hall of the class of '95 at Oahu College, continues study in the University of Minnesota. Miss Agnes Alexander of the same class, is spending a year in her brother's family in Berkeley, Mr. Arthur Alexander having been called thither to a professorship in the University of California.

Miss Mary C. Alexander having fitted herself for Kindergarten work, has returned to Honolulu, and, as principal of the Free Kindergarten in the English department, is showing her fitness for the place. Miss Pauahi Judd, being equipped for the same profession by study at the Coast, is successfully conducting a Child-Garden of her own. The Kindergarten enterprise, so ably championed by Mrs. Harriet Castle Coleman, has had remarkable growth and as remarkable fruitage in its first biennial of existence. It is now carried on by an organization incorporated under the name of "Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association of the Hawaiian Islands," having eight officers and forty-five members of Standing Committees, thirty-six of whom are Cousins. Receipts to date have been $8,442.00. Among contributors to this amount we count the names of nearly one hundred cousins."

Five schools are under its care, and in these we find as teachers Miss Carrie Snow, Miss Mildred Kinney, Miss Mary Alexander, Miss Pires and Miss Bindt. Pupils from Kawaiahao Seminary are valuable assistants. Of the many interesting sights in this cosmopolitan town, rarely has there been one of greater interest or more real beauty than that which charmed the spectators in and around the grounds of Queen Emma Hall, the Kindergarten Headquarters, on the first of May, 1896. A group of one hundred and twenty-one Hawaiian, American, Portuguese, Chinese and Japanese children, tiny bits of humanity, in gorgeous oriental dress, in snowy white, or in the plainer garb of more restricted wardrobes, some bearing banners in jubilant glee, all marching in time to music, took their places around the edge of the oblong, grassy lawn in front of the Hall. Here they flitted as butterflies or skipped and sang in true Kindergarten style, while their graceful motions, their smiling faces with hints of the polish of refinement and purity that education and discipline effect, and their responsive attention to word or motion of their leaders, kept the onlookers in constant delight at the spectacle. Perhaps into the hearts of the hard-visaged, sin-begrimed crowd who loitered watching on the outside of the premises, there crept some sigh of regret that such blessing as blest these little ones had not been theirs in childhood.

Unfortunately the patron saint of the Kindergartens could not be present. With her sister, Miss Carrie Castle, Mrs. Coleman was on her way to the States, where we trust both will find well-earned rest.

In addition to those already mentioned as absent, may be recorded the names of Mrs. C. H. Atherton, Mrs. W. O. Atwater, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Castle, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Damon, Rev. O. P. Emerson, Mrs. E. G. Hitchcock and Miss Mabel Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones and Miss Alice Jones, Mrs. C. H. Judd, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Miss Nellie Lowrey, Mrs. Swanzey and Mrs. Emma Wilcox. Some of these are seeking health. Mr. Emerson is traveling with his bride in Europe, and during his furlough, Rev. O. H. Gulick adds to his work as missionary among the Japanese that of Secretary of the Hawaiian Board.

Another cousin, Mrs. Fanny Jewett is also in Europe; her husband, Professor Jewett, being there for a year's study. Mrs. Jewett has beautifully honored her father's memory by giving to the public the intensely interesting "Life of Dr. L. H. Gulick." Our welcomes to visiting cousins and to those returned home after longer or shorter absences have been extended to Mrs. Emelita Cooke, the Misses Grace and Ethel Cooke, and to Joseph P. Cooke, the latter to claim his bride, the mother and sisters to be present at the wedding; to Mrs. Ellen Higgins, who with her Alice made a pleasant stay of several weeks in Honolulu, and then proceeded to Japan to visit Miss McCully; to Rev. John Lydgate, whom we are glad to keep among us as a much needed helper in evangelistic work; to Mr. and Mrs. De La Vergne and their sons, whose stay among us we wish might be permanent; to Dr. and Mrs. Andrews, the Doctor's health being so much re-established, that he is able to resume his practice; to Mrs. Mary Cooke Turner, with voice and smiles cheering others, while her own heart weeps in the loneliness of widow hood; to Mrs. Helen Whitney Kelly, who coming to the comfort of her bereaved father, herself sustained in addition to the loss of her mother, the loss of her husband only a few days after their arrival; to Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle, returned from Washington, where for some months Mr. Castle was Hawaii's Minister Plenipotentiary; to Mr. William Waterhouse from whose island home since his last visit, had gone both his father and brother to the home beyond; to Miss Mary Beckwith, who having pursued a course of Art study in Brooklyn, has taught Art in the Honolulu schools the past year; to Mrs. May Atherton Richards whose health had required change of climate; to Mrs. Dillingham and Mrs. Mary Dillingham Frear, long absent at the Coast on account of the health of Mrs. Frear; to Mrs. Mabel Wing Castle, to Mrs. Mary Scott Carter and Miss Belle Carter; to Dr. A. B. Lyons, who accepts an important position in the service of the Government and to Hon. W. O. Smith who made a careful study of the land laws of New Zealand, and who has just left for China in the health interests of our Republic connected with immigration.

Sunny Side, the home of the beloved Pastor on Maui, has been gladdened by the return of Miss Millie Beckwith after a year's absence among friends in California. Cousins in Hilo have had the pleasure of visits from Miss Mary Lyman of Chicago, and of Mrs.

Lucy Wetmore Lewis.

Here it may be in order to congratulate the residents of "Beautiful Hilo" upon the success of their senator, Judge F. Lyman, in his efforts to secure liberal appropriations by the present Legislature for public improvements in that fair town.

We note with pleasure the activity of the Hilo Cousins in local missionary efforts. They generously aid the Salvation Army, the Japanese, Portuguese, and Chinese missions there. A great loss has come to them in the death of Mrs. David Hitchcock—so many years a kind and faithful helper in all good work.

On Maui there is about to be erected at Lahaina the "Baldwin Memorial Church," a noble monument to his beloved father, by Hon. H. P. Baldwin. It will present one of the most artistic and attractive exteriors on the islands. The readers of our Annual Report must have noticed Mr. Baldwin's most liberal contribution to our funds. By the Kauai Cousins, too, how nobly have we been aided in raising the full amount of our appropriations.

Among many recent improvements in the metropolis several have claimed special interest and aid from our band.

For a year after the insect-eaten timbers, under the great roof of Kawaiahao Church, had made it unsafe for assemblies to gather within its walls, the congregation worshipped in a corrugated iron roofed shed in one corner of the yard. Meanwhile over $12,000 were being raised for repairs and these were going promptly forward. It was a happy company that took part in the service of praise when the doors of the grand old church were again open for worship: and pleasant, indeed, to the eye was the remodeled beautiful interior. May many years be added to the pastorate of Rev. H. H. Parker who has faithfully filled its pulpit for thirty years and more.

At an outlay of $18,000, a gymnasium and other improvements have been added to the Y. M. C. A. Hall. Some of the second generation of cousins are taking the places of the first generation in official duties connected with that organization. A blessed spiritual uplift was felt by a portion of our community from the labors of the evangelist, Rev. C. H. Yatman, secured for a season, by the Y. M. C. A.

On the 21st of May, the fifty-fifth anniversary of Rev. Daniel Dole's arrival at the islands, his noble son, Hawaii's President, delivered the dedicatory address at the opening of Pauahi Hall, Hon. C. R. Bishop's latest gift to Oahu College. As one saw the stately building beautiful in architecture, in material and in equipment, ablaze from cupola to basement with electric light, its auditorium filled with a cultured audience, she could but think that a group of shining ones above, who loved Punahou in the olden days, was now looking down with thanksgiving in their souls for all the blessings that had come to it, and with longings—for there must be longings there—for its greatest future good.

A beautiful, sweet-toned organ, an offering from Mrs. S. N. Castle in memory of her husband, adds its wealth of music to the treasures of Pauahi Hall.

On the eve of their departure for the States, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones had the great pleasure of participating in the dedicatory services of a neat and commodious mission Chapel which had been erected on King Street in the Palama district, at their expense and the use of which they generously donate to the Central Union Church for five years. This will be a broad field for Christian work. But, dear Cousins, "the field is the world." Let us not forget while we interest ourselves in abundant missionary work upon our own shores, that there are millions in other lands who have never heard the name of Jesus. Shall we not pray for them, and give more freely of our means to bring them to a knowledge of our Lord and Savior?

DEATHS.

Sickness and pain and anxious watchings have entered more than fifty of our homes the past year. Though the tender mercy of our Father, death has entered comparatively few of these, and so far as your Secretary knows only seven names are to be added to the one hundred and six recorded in the previous nine years during which she has kept the roll of the dead.

From Colonel Stewart we learn that his son, Chas. S. Stewart, died Feb. 8th, 1893. He lies buried in the beautiful cemetery beside Otsego lake, where rests the dust of his missionary grand-parents and of his mother and sister.

August 28, 1895, Miss Sallie Bartow Small, died in York, Penn. Her latest words were "Precious Jesus." An intimate friendship of forty years with this dear sister enables the writer to unite the following paid by Miss Small's pastor at the Memorial Services. "A nobler woman, a more beautiful character never lived in our midst. Those who knew her best saw how wondrously sweet was her inner life, and how heavenward were her aspirations."

In Honolulu, Aug. 31st, 1895, Mrs. Alice Hardy Hitchcock. We shall never forget the gentle grace, the tender voice, the ineffable air of peace of this lovely friend, as we saw her for the last time before she fell asleep. She was then calling among her friends, but there was a saintliness about her that made her seem more of heaven, than of the earth. And when we heard, two days later, that she was no more of earth, we felt we had had a glimpse of the transiguration that was awaiting her.

Nov. 2, 1895. There slipped away suddenly from us another pure spirit, Mrs. Rachel Soares. Her death was a heavy loss for the family of which she was wife and mother, for the church so helped by her counsels and example, for the goodly companies of Christian workers who felt the strength of her presence, and to the nationality to whose uplift she had devoted her life. To her it was infinite gain.

In Rutherford, N. J. late in 1895 Leslie, aged eleven, only daughter of Lucy Reynolds Sanford. Of her the mother writes: "Were I to recount one tithe of our darling's sufferings it would wring your hearts. But such heavenly sweetness and patience, such supreme happiness in our love, and her own hope in her Heavenly Father, such fortitude and undimmed radiance of soul could not be excelled."

Feb. 12, 1896, there came release to Mrs. Henry M. Whitney, whose waiting for it had covered years. Wise and most efficient in benevolent and philanthropic work, cordial in manner and responsive with sympathy, she was greatly missed by her colaborers when disease withheld her from active service. But the influence of her cheerfulness and faith, firm to the last, is a blessed addition to her earlier usefulness.

In Mr. F. C. Lowrey we have had a like pattern of faith and patience while he bore for many months pain and disability. In his death two families, Mr. F. J. Lowrey's and Mr. W. R. Castle's, lose a beloved father, and we all lose a valued friend.

Died March 2, 1896, Mr. J. T. Waterhouse; the passing away of this warm hearted man "diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord," leaves a vacancy in our midst to the strangeness and the sadness of which we do not grow accustomed. We miss him in the sanctuary, in the Sabbath School and in the social gathering. But we are sure that he has entered into higher service, and into the joy of his Lord.

For four and twenty years life and love have marked the home of Judge A. S. Hartwell. In the circle of father and mother and eight children there has been no break until now. Now there is a new made grave in a newly bought plot of Nuuanu Cemetery, and under its flower-covered sod there lies all that was mortal of Mrs. Charlotte (Smith) Hartwell—the devoted wife and mother. For the immortal spirit Jesus had prepared a place and called her to it on the 3rd of June, 1896.

"Thus spake Death;" Pain bears the token, I the summons bring.
Life thou livest now no longer,
So hath said thy King."
"Nay, dear Angel," came the answer,
"If I go with thee
Life of life shall open to me
By thy golden key."

Through the shadow and the silence,
Passed both Pain and Death:
Grand and tender was the baptism
Of their solemn breath!
Then one stood within the chamber,
Neither Death nor Pain!
Only wide and wondrous glory
Crowned what they had slain."

LYDIA BINGHAM COAN.

By the mail following our annual meeting, a letter was received by our Secretary elect, from Miss Ingraham of Hunter, N. Y., enclosing tangible proof of her continued aloha for the cousins. As this could not well appear in the Treasurer's report for 1896, it is thought well thus to make mention of it.

REPORT OF KAWAIAHAO SEMINARY.

The $200 appropriated by the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society for tuition of girls in Kawaiahao Seminary was distributed as follows: Mary Desha, $30; Eliza Desha, $10; Annie Opeka, $40; Mary Piikoi, $45; Lucy Leleo, $37.50; Becky Trask, $12.50; Lucy Kaukau, $10; Lydia Kawainui, $10; Grace Beckley, $5. Cholera prevented our opening school until November 1st. For this reason, our receipts from tuition were considerably lessened while there was but little change in expenses during that time.

The receipts from the Dress-making department have averaged more per month than ever before. The demand for sewing girls has been so great that most of the work in Rice Cottage has been done by inexperienced girls. The total amount earned by the twelve girls who have gone out to sew is $662.65. The largest amount earned by one girl is $200.75. Three of these girls are self-supporting and five others are partially so. Aside from the sewing girls and the five assistants in the Free Kindergarten, the average age of pupils is less than in former years. Our Primary Department is crowded.

Notwithstanding the prevalence of whooping cough and malarial fever for some time, we close the year with one hundred and six pupils, all but one or two being in excellent health.

Encouraging reports have been received concerning the work done by the older girls who teach in the Mission Sunday Schools. We have good reason to believe that the seed sown will bring forth good fruit. Although only one girl has united with the church, we have noticed a decided change in the lives of many who will soon declare themselves "on the Lord's side." The Society of Christian Endeavor has been of practical value to the members in giving them an opportunity to show their allegiance to their master. Lima Kokua has proved its right to the name by lending a "Helping Hand" to the Free Kindergarten Fund and being the first society in Honolulu to send a contribution to the suffering Armenians.

We are very grateful to individuals and societies who have made it possible for so many girls to attend Kawaiahao Seminary. We hope to train these girls so that they will ever prove themselves worthy of the support they have thus received.

REPORT OF EAST MAUI SEMINARY.

Our girls were unusually slow in coming back to school this fall, as three of the teachers were absent through September in consequence of quarantine regulations, and many of the girls did not know that the school would open before the full number of teachers were present.

Notwithstanding the delay in the commencement of our work, the girls have made good progress in their studies and other work, and we feel that the year has been a profitable one.

Our girls have made a marked improvement in willingness and readiness to take part in the various prayer meetings, and in applying to their daily living the things talked of in the meetings.

The Christian Endeavor and King's Daughter Societies are well sustained and are a source of great good to the girls.

We regret that we have been obliged to refuse admittance into our school to a number of girls who have applied, and whose friends are not able to support them, because we have already all the non-paying pupils we can support.

If any of our friends who read this report desire to help any of these poor girls, we shall be very grateful, and shall try to make the money go just as far as possible.

What the girls learn here of cooking, house-keeping, sewing, and keeping themselves clean and neat, can not but be of great value to them, and a help in elevating the Hawaiian race.

We thank the Cousin's Society very heartily for their continued aid to our school.

M. IDA ZIEGLER.

REPORT OF KOHALA GIRLS' SCHOOL.

Our school had a very unfortunate opening at the beginning of the year, for instead of the house being open and ready for the children, the 1st of September found the full force of teachers detained in Honolulu on account of the cholera quarantine. The delay seemed almost disastrous to the school for the fear of the disease became so general, that it was almost impossible to gather the children in. We have had a small school, only numbering thirty-seven, ten of whom are paid for by their parents, twelve half paid, and fifteen paid entirely by outside help.

The health of the children has been perfect, not having had one case of sickness. There has been no special religious feeling, though the most of the girls seem to be trying to live right, and are thoughtful and earnest in all the religious services.

We thank all our friends who have given us financial aid this year particularly the Cousins' Society who have paid for four ministers' daughters.

We hope that with the very generous help that comes now from Mr. Bishop better success may attend us in regard to the number of pupils for next year.

MARY O. PAULDING.

REPORT OF HILO BOYS' BOARDING SCHOOL.

There have been some changes in teachers; Miss Lyman on account of health, has had a year's absence, and Harriet Forbes has filled her place. Miss Richardson has also taught, thus increasing the efficiency of the school-room work. The health of all has been good, except for the epidemic of grippe within the last few weeks.

We have had applications from several Japanese for admission, and nine have studied all or a part of the year. Their desire is to learn English. One who came in September has gone out as interpreter in the Registrar's office for his countrymen.

Although their presence in the school complicates its work and discipline, yet we consider them helpful on the whole. They are ambitious and we trust this may prove an incentive to the Hawaiians.

I may be pardoned, perhaps, for referring with some pride to the excellence of work done in my printing class.

Lessons in the class-room in English (stories suggested by Bancroft's Object Cards) have been written by each pupil, corrected and then printed and made into a book. I can see progress in the use of new words, forms of expression, accuracy in details which is very encouraging.

Rev. C. Hill has interested himself in us and given us a talk on Wednesday mornings We get help not only from his words, but from the spirit of helpfulness shown in thus remembering us week after week.

We graduate one young man from Puna, whose tuition was at first paid by the Cousins' Society. He is bright and we trust will find some useful employment before he leaves us.

The fields have brought forth abundantly, and we close with a fresh coat of white-wash on fences and of paint on all our buildings.

Thank you again for your help and aid.

C. REAMER TERRY.

REPORT OF THE KAUAI INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

Under the faithful guidance of the Principal, Miss A. Bruce, the Malumalu School has been doing the same efficient work as heretofore in the various departments.

Owing to the cholera quarantine in Honolulu, the opening of the school was delayed about a month, somewhat to the detriment of the school.

The attendance has been about 30, and the patrons of the school have continued their usual support, for which they have our sincere gratitude. We are specially grateful to Mr. G. N. Wilcox for the valuable gift of the use of a tract of arable land, in addition to his usual generous assistance.

A concert given last July realized a considerable sum, for which we have to thank our Kauai friends.

An interesting new departure has been made in the government of the school. Every important case of discipline is referred to a council of twelve of the oldest and most trustworthy boys acting in conjunction with the principal, who examine into the case and decide on the character and amount of punishment to be administered. The boys are made to understand that a position on this council is an honor granted only on the condition of fair dealing. * * * An important advantage of this system is that public opinion is formed among the boys themselves, which tends very strongly to discourage wrong doing and marks the culprit with popular disfavor. The consequent mortification is in itself a measure of punishment, and renders him surprisingly amenable to any further discipline that may be necessary. The question suggests itself whether some such method would work as well for girls as for boys?

Since the coming of the Evangelists, Revs. Timoteo and Ezera, there has been a marked increase in the religious interest of the school. The interest began among the smaller boys who of their own accord proposed to have little private prayer meetings. In the ardor of their enthusiasm they proposed daily meetings but one of the larger boys suggested that they would better spend part of the time in doing the things they were praying about, so they finally decided to have the meetings twice a week.

It may be well to say that the boys are selected because of special fitness, and that with the exception of two who are supported by their relatives about half the boys are supported by friends of the school and the other half entirely at the expense of the institution itself.

The withdrawal of the $500 a year of government aid will necessitate extra special effort on the part of the friends of the school to keep up its financial standing.

JULIETTE SMITH.

REPORT OF CHINESE MISSION SCHOOLS.

Once more greeting to the Cousins from those "from the land of Sinim." Your kind and generous aid has helped us in the past year and we thank you for it most truly. Some that you have aided in other years are now growing into their young manhood and womanhood and are becoming useful members of society. The efforts which have been made in their behalf have not been made in vain, but we believe will continue to bear good and lasting fruit. Some of our mission schools here in Honolulu are being continued in the Chinese language, while the boys and girls receive their instructions in English in the Government In the time given to the instruction in Chinese, an opportunity is afforded us of imputing a knowledge of the truths of Christianity and of guiding and helping these young people, as would otherwise not be possible. The value and importance of this has been abundantly demonstrated. A large and interesting company of boys and girls is now connected with the different departments of these mission schools and we have every reason to feel that they will make good and useful men and women. As I write I hear the ring of the hammers on the new buildings for the "Mill's Boarding School." A stimulating and encouraging music to us, whose hearts are cheered with the growth and development of this institution. Our sixty students have been connected with the school during the past year, and the outlook for the coming year is most promising.

If any Cousin, whose eyes may fall upon this Report, is moved to come to our aid in this good "forward movement" we are now making, we will most gratefully accept whatever help's proffered. It is a good opportunity to help on a work of far-reaching importance.

Our Chinese Kindergartens in Honolulu, Hilo and Kohala, report a prosperous year. In Kohala the Chinese Mission School under Mrs. Ostrom's genial management is making splendid progress. In Wailuku, Maui, Miss Morris has had charge of our schoolwork. This coming year Miss Charlotte Turner will take charge of our school at this point. For all the aid given by the "Cousin's Society" once more accept our hearty thanks and our best wishes for the long continuance of this most helpful organization.

Respectfully submitted;

FRANK W. DAMON.

ADDRESS OF THE RETIRING PRESI-DENT.

Cousins and Some Other Relations in Yesterday and To-day.

To begin with,—Fathers,—all Missionaries.

We are all too near them for good effect. None of us are farther away than the third generation; while in some instances the "Mothers" themselves are still with us. They need perspective to be appreciated. Fifty years hence there will be enthusiastic pedigree hunters in search of a warrant to be called the Sons of Hawaiian Missionaries. Such a movement will never have the eclat that belongs to the Sons of the American Revolution, Peninsula Survivors, G. A. R., etc., etc. Interests distinctively patterning after the Man of Nazareth seek spiritual rather than fleshly succession. Still it is likely, if things terrestrial occupy our attention fifty years hence and a remnant of time still lies unsubmerged in the onsweep of eternity, that the hearts of many faithful will swell with grateful pride at the thought of a lineal descent from the Hawaiian Missionaries.

What need of a eulogy on the Fathers and Mothers? Certainly not in a gathering like this. To find monuments of builders,—the peers of Sir Christopher Wren, we have looked around us; and even amid the absurd cavils that hover around the term "missionary," here in Hawaii nei in our civilization of a century we look in vain for any moral, civic or economic good, that does not bear the impress of the hand of the Missionary Fathers; and the little bad that remains would not be here today, had their influence entirely prevailed.

No doubt their memory never could utterly fade; but the same might be said of the Revolutionary Fathers, and yet men have thought it wise to systematically preserve to posterity the inspiration of their motives, as well as their deeds. It certainly cannot be too late, and why should it be too early for us to keep alive the sacred flame on the altar of—patriotism? An altar indeed, on which many sacred offerings have gone up to God, but rather circumscribed for the Missionary Fathers Their commonwealth was Christ's, and embraced the world. Nay, to sacrifice with them, we must pass in and beyond to the once Holy of Holies, now made nigh by the blood of Christ.

Logically our relations next in order are the sons of the missionaries—the Mission children. What ho! "cousins," what of the fathers? You of the second generation must have had perpetuation in mind, and undoubtedly have it still. Perpetuation of what?—not of the glory of the Fathers originally; for, at the mere suggestion, they would have felt like spanking you roundly. You must certainly have received from them a clear impression that their personal connection with the work (though to be sure, initial) was in their minds merely an incident. What they considered worth the honoring was the "work."

They cannot interfere now with our magnifying of the incidental, should there be danger of it: nevertheless their wishes have claims on our respect.

"Cousins" of the then and now, as a body we are no longer cousins after the flesh to any considerable extent. The ties of blood are loosened: what bonds that may hold are worth our re-forging? The "social" ones look fascinating—found too in our preamble—but these are too loosely constituted and too cold for any respectable welding. Do you still cling to the hope of finding a patent social cement for the Cousins' society? Ask the now defunct "veranda brigade" what part of the Mission Children's Society they constituted? Nay what has become of them individually?

The social is all right as a result. In a good weld it would be the first thing in sight; but as a means and as an attempt to make a strong union, we have the so-called fashionable society of Honolulu to beat on their own grounds. As a mere society attraction, the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society has always failed, and please God, may it always do so.

But says some dear old cousin, "our meetings have been too dry" to attract the young folks. Granted: but we must also face the fact that there are certain elements in the work of spreading the Kingdom of Christ that we can never make irresistably funny or even delightfully entertaining.

Let us face the music. Why not try the straight forward missionary weld, in the warmth and glow of genuine missionary enthusiasm. We can count on it that a large part of the "dryness" will have been discovered to have been lifelessness,—we will not say death. Here is no very damaging admission. To admit that we need revivifying is only to recognise that we need life and that we need it more abundantly.

Now "Cousins" after the Spirit, missionarism is not popular the world over. Perhaps you and I will concede that we ourselves somehow have lost interest in foreign fields. We have allowed them to slip into the realm of sentimentality. Are these the traditions we have received from the elders? "Ye have not so received Christ."

Permit the following suggestions:

- I. Let Cousins become the eyes and ears of mission interests in the islands, and Cousins meetings the headquarters of missionary intelligence.
- II. Let no beneficiary of this Society fail in some form of representation at the meeting of the Society.
- III. Let us expect to hear from these representatives in an informal way at every meeting.
- IV. Let us carry on the Mortlock Mission in the name of old times and the last verse of Matthew.
- V. In the name of God and the Missionary Fathers, let us perpetuate their interest in the native Hawaiian, striving to enter more into sympathy with the native pastors and teachers, who work amidst a fading people, and decaying religious institutions.

The aid of the Hawaiian Board is extended very largely to alien races. The financial assistance they render is considerably less to Hawaiians than to other races, due to the continued recognition of the independence and self supporting nature of Hawaiian churches. Without any desire to criticise such a policy, if there is to be any new form of assistance to the Hawaiians, who are better fitted to institute it than Cousins.

Specifically, can we not follow the excellent lead of the Kauai Pastor's Aid Society, and offer to the Hawaiian Board the support, or partial support, of a traveling secretary for one island, say the island of Oahu, who in accordance with the congregational polity may report to his general secretary, but who shall never fail in his attendance upon Cousins.

The inspiration of a good man constantly among them would be a wonderful power in Hawaiian Churches, and we at the same time would be aroused by contact with direct work and constant intimacy with ways and means.

VI. We need not abate a jot in our amount of annual appropriation, expecting that those who have given so generously out of respect for by-gone days and the general good of the cause—will find no ground for an abatement in the renewed internal interest developed in the Society.

VII. It is strongly urged that there be some different way of raising funds—that the burden of the money raising be extended to the greatest possible number of shoulders in some systematic ways—that the treasurer be no longer the sole avenue of getting and giving. He should not have all the burden, nor should he get thereby all of one of the chief blessings the Society has to offer.

What then of dissolution?

Some may have seriously thought of it, while others probably have employed it only as a useful counterirritant, as one might strive to lash out of lethargy him who in soft and dreamy sleep is in real danger of icy death. An antemortem examination may have proved beneficial, even though a full eternity ahead of time; but as to "dissolution," let it not be even so much as named among us.

While the second generation of cousins remains, there is vitality enough (if you can control it) to run two such societies: so much is there, that it overflows into other good work on the islands and crops up every where. Whether it flows spontaneously into new enterprises of the old Society will in a large measure determine the future of "Cousins" in its rransition period, and when new hands are required to take up the burden.
